Louise M. Chiles } My dear Senator:
Senator Fl. }
I am enclosing two paper
clippings regarding Russian KGB agents - If this is true, why in the world does the Senate and the Congress do something about that? It is later than you think.
[redacted]

Approximately 3,000 Communists work in the U.N.'s New York headquarters. According to Arkady Shevchenko, former Under Secretary General at the Secretariat, who defected from the Soviet Union in 1978, more than 1,000 of the 3,000 are KGB agents. Their main job is espionage and subversion of the U.S. We pay more than one-fourth of the fantastic costs of the U.N., which is dedicated largely to our destruction.
